Itinerary Highlights

Day 1. Orlando, Florida

Meet fellow travelers and the expedition staff at a welcome dinner at our fine hotel.
The Ritz-Carlton Orlando, Grande Lakes

Days 2 & 3. Ancient Mayan Ruins of Tikal, Guatemala

Explore the awe-inspiring ruins of Tikal, including its towering temples and shrines. Then look for parrots and toucans on a birdwatching excursion, cruise Lake Petén Itza, or visit the charming Spanish-Colonial town of Flores.
Camino Real Hotel, Tikal

Days 4 & 5. Masaya Volcano & Historic Granada, Nicaragua

Look down into a lake of lava from the rim of the most active volcano in the region. Hike and explore this amazing landscape, and learn about the dramatic colonial heritage of the restored town of Granada. At the San Francisco Convent Cultural Center, see impressive basalt sculptures of pre-Columbian indigenous people from Zapatera Island.
Real InterContinental Metrocentro Managua

Days 6, 7, 8 & 9. Lima & Cusco, the Urubamba Valley and Machu Picchu; or the North Coast; or Lake Titicaca, Peru

Marvel at how Incan and Spanish cultures intertwine in Lima and Cusco, and visit Machu Picchu, the great citadel abandoned by the Inca and rediscovered in 1911. Alternatively, you may choose to explore the pre-Incan treasures of Peru's North Coast, or the Incan culture of Lake Titicaca.
Miraflores Park Hotel, Lima & Hotel Monasterio, Cusco; or Costa Del Sol, Chiclayo & Libertador, Trujillo; or a fine hotel in Puna

Days 10, 11 & 12. The Atacama Desert's Breathtaking Landscapes & Unusual Wildlife, Chile

Discover beautiful geological formations, and the flora and fauna of the world's driest desert.
Explora Atacama Hotel de Larache, San Pedro de Atacama

Days 13, 14 & 15. Vibrant Arts of Buenos Aires; or the Wine Country of Mendoza, Argentina

Explore the European-inspired neighborhoods of Buenos Aires, such as Palermo, which boasts beautifully restored palaces and other historic edifices. Or, if you wish, venture into the countryside to visit an estancia and experience traditional gaucho culture. Or venture to the foot of the Andes to visit Mendoza, one of Argentina's most important wine regions.

Alvear Palace Hotel, Four Seasons Hotel Buenos Aires, or a fine estancia in Mendoza

Days 16 & 17. Glaciers & Natural Wonders of Argentine Patagonia

Cruise to a remote Patagonian valley and enjoy panoramic views of the surrounding Andes. Marvel at the gigantic Perito Morena glacier, a brilliant wall of pure ice that towers 200 feet above Lake Argentina; and cruise to the historic Estancia Christina and see the majestic Upsala valley glacier.
Los Sauces Casa Patagonica and Eolo Lodge, El Calafate

Days 18 & 19. Spectacular Iguazú Falls, Brazil

Ride on zodiacs to the base of Iguazú Falls, or enjoy a helicopter flight for a panoramic aerial view of this world wonder. And enjoy a gala farewell dinner at this unforgettable place.
Hotel Das Cataratas, Foz do Iguazú

Days 20 & 21. Brazil / Orlando, Florida / Homeward

Board our private jet and return to Florida. The next morning, connect with your independent commercial flight home.
